Beaconsfield is one of the oldest towns in Tasmania. It has the gold mining history, wineries and foodies paradise to entice you whilst only 35 minutes from Launceston. This weatherboard cottage was built in 1963, has 3 bedrooms and an updated bathroom. Plenty of space for all the kids and grown-ups toys in the spacious back yard. If you are looking for an investment, or your first home then give this one a look over.
