Move to the beach-side in this happening suburb on the Central Coast with world class beaches, golf course, restaurants and cafes all nearby. A home with a holiday vibe, so whether it's a cosy weekend getaway or somewhere to come home to, you will feel the peace and solitude the moment you walk inside and unwind from the week or day. This gorgeous home offers three bedrooms along with a home study, currently used for a home hairdressing business, with a dining area and lounge room separated by a cool looking and functional kitchen. Situated on a spacious 626 m² block, this property offers plenty of room for outdoor activities in the backyard with lots of greenery around the perimeter for privacy and the yard is also overlooked from the outdoor covered deck, perfect for watching the kids play, or entertaining friends and family for weekend BBQ's and is fully fenced for the family pets. This is a great opportunity to secure your future in the East Bateau Bay area, with a short stroll to the beach, cafe and shops. Shelly Beach surf club and other amenities are also close by, including Bateau Bay Bowling Club and restaurant around the corner, Shelly Beach Golf Course & Club. This is a lifestyle to be envied, but also easy to immerse yourself in, come along and buy your piece of beach side real estate.
