Discover the pinnacle of Sorrento living at one of its most coveted vantage points. Perched high above the rest with 270 degree panoramic views, this remarkable family home offers a truly unparalleled lifestyle. Indulge your senses as you gaze over the glistening expanse of Port Phillip Bay, where the horizon meets the sky in a mesmerising dance of colours from sunrise to sunset. With Arthurs Seat soaring above the Bay, the Melbourne city skyline standing tall in the distance, Sorrento Township showcasing the ever-familiar Continental Hotel Tower, endless landmarks, including Coppins Lookout atop the coastal dunes. And as the sun dips below the horizon, the tranquil Ocean Park and Bass Strait take your breath away. This iconic north facing family home with timeless design integrity, enjoys sweeping views from both upper and lower decks. Elevated living comprises spacious lounge with captivating Bay views, open plan dining, modern kitchen and family area out to the deck. First floor master suite offers a private retreat to unwind and rejuvenate whilst soaking in the stunning vistas with two bedrooms, bathroom and sitting area opening to the expansive upper entertainment deck. Downstairs boasts two bedrooms, bathroom and lower-level lounge/study with access to under house storage. Coastal garden setting with double lock up garage. Leave the car at home with the wonderful Sorrento Village being only a small walk away, knowing that you can easily return to the peace and tranquility of 39 Queens Road.
