Experience this exquisite residence situated in the vibrant heart of Treendale. Positioned in a peaceful yet central location, this modern and spacious family home is impeccably presented and guaranteed to make a lasting impression. With its stunning landscaped gardens and open-concept design, it promises a serene and comfortable lifestyle. The low-maintenance garden is expertly maintained and features reticulation at the front, ensuring the landscaping remains lush and vibrant. Additionally, the expansive 2.5m side access offers ample space to securely store vehicles or recreational items. The kitchen is a standout feature, boasting essa stone benchtops, high-quality 900mm kitchen appliances, and captivating pendant lights in the kitchen/dining area. This culinary haven provides generous space for cooking enthusiasts to unleash their creativity. An ideal work-from-home setup awaits, as the property includes a media room currently functioning as a hair or beauty salon. If desired, the plumbing in the room can be easily removed, transforming it into a versatile space tailored to your specific needs. Main bedroom - a divine and welcoming parents retreat, offering ample space with a large ensuite complete with double basin, oversized shower recess and well appointed windows allowing natural light throughout this space. This home also features three bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, each embellished with double mirrors which adds a touch of sophistication. The second toilet also features a convenient hand basin. Convenience is at your doorstep, with local schools, shops, and the famous Treendale Farm Hotel just a short stroll away, making everyday errands a breeze. The Bunbury CBD is only a 15-minute drive, and if you crave a weekend getaway, Perth is less than a two-hour drive. Seize the opportunity to transform this house into your dream home. Contact Steve the Treendale specialist today to arrange a viewing and discover the enchantment of this delightful property firsthand.
