AUCTION

Auction Location: On-siteFor sale via Auction on-site at 11am, Saturday 29th June, 2024Perched atop a cliff at the end of a secluded cul-de-sac, 39 Taronga Road offers incredible vistas over the River Derwent. The existing three-bedroom, 1-bathroom residence offers tremendous potential. The expansive 956 square metre allotment allows those with an eye for renovation the perfect parcel to expand the residence and turn into something truly special. Additionally, a blank slate for the visionary builder or developer. The home has a single carport with additional off-street parking. The bedrooms are on the south / east side of the home, while the separate kitchen, living and dining room are positioned on the north / east side, keeping in light and bright throughout the day. The Alum Cliffs track, which offers views of Storm Bay and Bruny Island, borders the rear boundary of the property, providing walking access to Kingston Beach and Taroona. 39 Taronga Road offers the serenity of a secluded retreat, yet lies only 15 minutes from Hobart's heart.
