Flaunting exciting contemporary updates and a bright and airy floorplan with two generous living zones, this three-bedroom home is a very welcome find for first-time buyers, investors and downsizers. Situated on a 595sqm (approx) corner allotment 700m to Frankston Heights Primary School, this popular pocket offers easy access to parks and public transport with the major shopping centres of Frankston CBD and Karingal Hub less than 10-minutes' drive away. Nicely presented with fresh tones, timber floors and an inviting open layout, the stylish kitchen with dishwasher and walk-in pantry merges soft white cabinetry and wooden counters, flowing into the family living and dining zone that opens to the outdoor-entertaining area. The second lounge ensures plenty of room for the family to spread out in comfort, which is well situated beside the master bedroom with built-in robes and private ensuite for mum and dad, leaving kids with the beautifully updated family bathroom between the junior rooms. A very appealing package that won't be on the market for long, the property includes gas heating, reverse-cycle aircon, raised veggie beds and double carport.
