This property is perfectly located and would be suitable for a variety of prospective buyers. It offers easy access to all major towns and is only a few minutes away from the newly expanded Latrobe Regional Hospital. The demand for properties like this is high, and this one is no exception. The house is well-maintained and all the rooms are generously sized. The central kitchen is spacious and the separate lounge room is a relaxing and attractive space. The bedrooms are all roomy enough to accommodate any size. This property offers natural gas and town water services as well as gas heating and evaporative cooling for your comfort. The fencing is in excellent condition and there is adequate shedding available. If you're looking for a property that offers ample space, privacy, a great location, and is beautifully maintained, then this property might just be the one you're looking for.
