A hard to find family home of solid construction overlooking the golf course and just a short walk to schools. Featuring a large formal lounge with polished jarrah floor and large window overlooking the golf course. Open kitchen/dining area has ample built in cupboards, stainless steel appliances and breakfast bar. This area leads you to the large open study room and into the second living/games room. Bathroom is tastefully tiled with feature alcove, separate bath and a separate toilet close by. Three large bedrooms with built in robes, old polished floors are a great feature while the laundry has outdoor access. The property is kept comfortable during summer with a ducted evaporative air conditioning and 2 gas heaters are located in the living rooms. Externally features include a large entertaining area, side access for boat and caravans, low maintenance gardens, 2 carports, a single workshop with concrete floor, garden shed and room for the children to play.
