NOTE: Enter via Myers Drive/Nelson Street Service Road Reimagined classicism cradled between award-winning wineries and Shoreham's famed surf breaks at Honeysuckles and The Pines, matching its spirited revival with a practical design perfect as a relaxed weekender, Air BNB or a permanent way of life. A private setting beyond high double gates reveals a reminiscent form graced with a modern ebony touch, allowing the richness of its terracotta roof tiles and sculptural gardens to take centre stage. A dual-lounge design relishes all-new carpets and a crisp colour palette, separated by a modernised kitchen with ample cupboard space, quality appliances and effortless access to its covered entertaining terrace. Wine, dine and recline while breathing in the coast-and-country air, with the relaxed appeal of its private alfresco space and cultivated grounds matching the allure of its three bedrooms and modern central bathroom. Additional features include multiple split-system units and a storage shed. It's Addressed: 3911 Frankston-Flinders Road, Shoreham is the beginning of a truly special way of life. Experience the practical elegance of this reimagined home, and call your Area Specialist, Josh Wells, to discover the relaxed coastal lifestyle you've been searching for.
