It's not everyday that 5228m² comes available with a house, room to erect a shed, and with such close proximity to the highway. The house yard is separately fenced to the rest of the block and has a timber garage and old style outbuildings that could be removed and easily replaced with something more modern. With lovely front verandah, eat in kitchen, separate lounge room, three bedrooms and a separate laundry, the home will tick all of your boxes. Although the house can do with some modernising, it is a solid and functional and this could be done at your own pace.
