Nestled on expansive acreage, and greeted by a gated entry, this meticulously crafted stone residence is a timeless masterpiece of enduring construction. The manufactured sandstone block walls create a solid foundation, while exposed Oregon beams and cypress pine interiors infuse rustic charm and warmth, connecting you to nature. Cathedral ceilings throughout enhance the grandeur of this home, complemented by a Canadian Lopi woodfire heater in the main living area, providing both function and cozy ambiance. The kitchen, complete with a walk-in pantry, seamlessly adjoins the dining room, showcasing precision-laid smooth slate flooring. A formal dining area boasts recycled Australian timber flooring, and a separate sunken lounge invites relaxation. The master bedroom is a haven with a walk-in robe, ensuite, and a unique parent's retreat loft, while a nearby study or nursery adds practicality. Three additional bedrooms, each with a study nook and built-in robes, ensure ample space for family and guests. The northerly facing design bathes the interiors in abundant natural light, creating an inviting atmosphere. A self-contained studio/5th bedroom with a bathroom adds versatility to the layout. Step outside under the bullnose verandah that encompasses the house, providing a serene vantage point to appreciate the surrounding beauty. Insulation throughout the walls and cypress pine roof lining ensures comfort year-round. A rainforest viewing platform beckons, offering an alluring escape into nature amidst the harmonious sounds of birdsong and the gentle trickling of the creek. For the car enthusiasts, a circular driveway from the gated entry leads to a double car garage with two sheds (16m x 7.5m and 6m x 12m), providing ample space for storage and hobbies.
