Designed with evident style and exceptional success, this inviting dual level residence appreciates the independence of its convenient corner setting so close to St Georges Road trams, Preston station trains and Preston Market that they're all only minutes away – and we're talking walking! A downstairs domain that delivers two double bedrooms and two sophisticated bathrooms includes a main bedroom with an ensuite while above, polished floorboards, balcony aspects and a contemporary kitchen accompany bright living and dining dimensions. Crisp, clean lines, heating/cooling, a downstairs laundry and secure garage each make their own contribution to a property promising lifestyle appeal, investment performance – or both!
