Masterfully constructed to the highest standard is this premium coastal family home effortlessly blending luxurious modern finishes with timeless design. With a delightful street presence amidst easy care gardens... pack the trolley, the drinks some bites, the kids hat and sunblock and take the easy stroll to the beautiful sandy beach... that is Henley. Designed and built with light, space and functionality in mind the substantial home presents a well thought floorplan with high ceilings, double glazed windows link the interior with the low maintenance front and leafy rear garden. Multiple living zones including a retreat upstairs which is perfect to work from home, sit and relax or just sit on the balcony and take in the peace...Four bedrooms including one with ensuite, plus a family bathroom and w.c. and powder room. Open plan kitchen with Smeg appliances and stunning stone bench work areas provide for the ultimate for entertaining and relaxing....Speaking of relaxation, there is simply nothing in the way once you have unpacked and settled in have friends and family around to celebrate with drinks around the fabulous wood bar and flip a coin to see who cooks the barbie! Off street garaging for two real cars via remote entry for added security from the inclement weather, now all homes need to be cleaned and with the ducted vacuum system makes this task a little bit more bearable and with the weather warming just around the corner the ducted reverse cycle air conditioning will take the sting out the hot days. Whos that at the door? Visors both welcome or not can be viewed from the monitor on both levels... Beautiful timeless fixture, fitting complimented by neutral tones = Serenity!
