Wonderfully befitting its peaceful seaside setting, this two-bedroom unit has undergone a thoughtful partial renovation to set the scene for a laidback, low-maintenance lifestyle between the daily buzz of the village centre and the natural beauty of Swan Bay. With exposed beams and an abundance of natural light, the home exudes coastal charm from the moment you step inside. Warmed by the glow of a wood burning fire, the open plan living domain offers a welcoming space for indoor-outdoor enjoyment, spilling out through banks of sliding stacker doors to a north-facing alfresco deck. A fully updated bathroom, split system air-conditioning, off-street parking for a single vehicle, and convenient storage solutions take care of creature comforts, while a separate courtyard provides a private space to relax after a fun-filled day on the water. Low on maintenance, the home caters to first homebuyers, downsizers, and holidaymakers alike. Within walking distance of amenities including shops, cafes, and restaurants, you'll be superbly located to make the most of this enviable seaside setting with the pristine Santa Casa beach as your playground and coastal pathways just footsteps from your door. Thoughtfully updated two-bedroom unit, in a neat complex of only six - Peaceful position within a short walk of beaches, cafes, and restaurants - Open plan living hub with effortless flow to north-facing alfresco deck - Double glazed windows, wood fire, and reverse cycle a/c for climatic comfort - Renovated bathroom enhances creature comforts - Includes allocated single car port with practical adjoining storage room
