The tasteful renovation of this boutique beach pad has created a stylish low-maintenance home in a fantastic spot just two blocks back from the sand and surf with the vibrant village hub around the corner. Designed to take full advantage of a sunny north aspect, a generous 63sqm approx layout offers the scale of a two-bedroom apartment with easy level access giving the ground floor apartment an inviting cottage-like feel. House-like proportions are complemented by original period details with a sun-dappled kitchen and designer bathroom featuring brass accents and subway tile finishes for a cohesive feel. One of 12 in Blakeney Court, the tranquil apartment is set in a leafy enclave an easy 550m walk to the beach and just over 1km to Randwick town centre offering the best of beachside living and urban convenience.
