This immaculate, as-new townhouse in the heart of Bayswater has a well-designed and light-filled floorplan full of surprises including two private alfresco areas and zoned double bedrooms with their own full-size bathrooms. Ideally located less than 600 metres from Bayswater Station and Mountain High shopping centre, it is an easy walk to primary and secondary schools, cafes, a choice of child care centres, lush parkland and local buses. Comprising sunny 1st floor living and dining with a sleek, well-appointed stone and steel kitchen opening to a north-facing balcony patio for extended alfresco living and entertaining. A 2nd bedroom on this level has sliding doors opening to the patio, built-in robes and an adjacent full-size bathroom with a bath. Downstairs, the main bedroom features built-in robes, its own full bathroom and sliding glass doors to a secluded and lush, landscaped garden terrace. In an established and family-friendly pocket, this home is within a 5km drive from Eastlink, revamped Westfield Knox shopping, dining and entertainment precinct and Dandenong Ranges national parkland with walking trails, weekend markets, picnic grounds and tearooms. Quality appointments throughout include reverse cycle heating and cooling, floating timber flooring, quality carpets, highlight windows, integrated Euro laundry, timber staircase, video security intercom, oversized single auto garage with internal and courtyard access, garden shed and rainwater tank. - Options to rent out one bedroom as an added income stream - High quality, energy-efficient fittings and finishes throughout - Architect-designed to optimise light and space with storage solutions - Family-friendly setting close to cafes, dining, playgrounds and parks - Ideal first home or secure investment
