Embracing a fresh and easy apartment lifestyle, this unique ground floor residence offers a beachside oasis with direct access to a common garden at the rear. It's quietly set at the very rear of the boutique Oceania complex of 12 that's enviably positioned less than 100m to the surf and sand of Coogee Beach, and close to all the attractions that make this suburb such a great place to live. The property is well-appointed throughout with many smart modern updates and a leafy outlook, delivering an excellent property in a blue-chip coastal location. A user-friendly layout with distinct lounge and dining areas Direct access to a common garden in leafy surrounds Contemporary kitchen with stone benches and quality fittings Separate internal laundry Polished timber floors, quality carpeting and fresh white décor Two double bedrooms both have mirrored built-in wardrobes A private and sunny balcony plus a lock-up garage Easy access to beachside parklands, local cafés restaurants & everything Coogee has to offer
