There are few better positions to enjoy all of Heidelberg's amazing attractions than here in this spacious and sunlit three bedroom, 2.5 bathroom townhouse. Completely secluded and serene at the rear of boutique block of only four, this superbly designed home is so centrally located that it is incredibly easy to go and sip coffee on vibrant Burgundy Street, shop at Warringal Mall or Leo's and take a stroll through beautiful Heidelberg Park and the Main Yarra Trail. The city too is effortlessly accessed from Heidelberg train station and the nearby medical precinct includes the Austin and Mercy Hospitals. Step inside and discover light-filled living of an impressive quality with the two-level layout oriented north to capture an abundance of natural light. Complemented by a beautifully renovated bathroom, upstairs accommodation comprises of three bedrooms all with built-in robes where two are extra-large including the main with its stylish ensuite. The ground-floor unfolds on timber floorboards revealing a powder room, a separate laundry, a superb Smeg and Bosch-appointed kitchen with excellent soft-close storage as well as a brilliant open-plan dining and living area. Sliding doors open to a north-facing rear courtyard garden that's perfect for relaxed alfresco entertaining while there's also a garden shed, under-house storage, and remote-control garage. Also offers ducted heating and split-system air-conditioning. Seconds to Heidelberg Primary School and in the Viewbank College zone! Miles Real Estate.
