Discover the charm of this beautifully renovated, top-floor, two-bedroom apartment in the highly sought-after 'Endless Summer Canals' of Tweed Heads. Nestled in an exclusive block of just four units, this property is perfect for first home buyers or astute investors. Step into the light-filled, open-plan living area, where a glass sliding door leads out to your balcony area where you can enjoy stunning sunsets over Mt Warning or peacefully watch the vibrant marine life of the Endless Summer canals. The modern kitchen, equipped with electric cooking, offers ample bench and storage space, seamlessly serving the dining area. Designed for privacy, the bedrooms are thoughtfully separated from the living space. The master bedroom is a true retreat, featuring a spacious walk-in robe, its own private balcony, and air conditioning for year-round comfort. The combined bathroom and laundry have been stylishly updated with a modern vanity and generous storage solutions. Additional convenience is provided by a spacious linen press located at the end of the living area. The oversized single lock-up garage on the ground floor offers secure off-street parking and plenty of storage space for paddle boards, kayaks, and fishing gear. Situated close to the pristine beaches of Kirra and Coolangatta, as well as the vibrant shopping complexes of Tweed Heads, Mugga Way is an ideal location. Enjoy the convenience of being just five minutes from Coolangatta Airport, Southern Cross University, and with easy access to the M1. Embrace the perfect blend of modern living and lifestyle choices in this exceptional property.
