Set at the rear of an exceptionally maintained complex in a desired Frankston Heights pocket, this light, bright and renovated unit is ideal for first home buyers, investors and downsizers alike. Boasting plenty of room, this modern unit comprises two generous and robed bedrooms, the master with a walk-through robe to a beautifully refurbished family bathroom. Living space is open, with a vast living area, informal dining and spacious and refurbished kitchen, equipped with full pantry and gas cooking. The private and paved rear yard is perfect for entertaining or running around with the little ones, and the comfort of an undercover decked area lends the space to year-round use. With comfort in mind, this home is finished with a gas wall furnace, ducted evaporative cooling, floating floorboards and a single remote garage. Situated within the coveted Frankston High School zone, it is mere walking distance to the local Heatherhill Road shops, Leawarra Station, Monash University and Frankston Heights Primary School.
