For the first time on offer in more than 2 decades, full of charm and sophistication, this 1920's art-deco semi-sized apartment in a boutique block of 8 is a must see. Lined with trees and less than 100m to the shores of world-famous Bondi Beach and some of the best eateries Sydney has to offer, Roscoe Street, one of Bondi's most popular streets, makes this property a perfect beachside home, retreat or a wise investment in Bondi's thriving property market. Enjoy level entry access into this impressively proportioned home, with high ceilings and stunning polished timber floors, the apartment is solidly built with interiors softened by elegant Art-Deco characteristics. A selfish master bedroom provides much desired space for the modern-day occupant. Warm natural light gleams through pairs of timber framed windows facing north-west to create a sense of place.- Large scale interiors featuring high decorative ornate ceilings- Ground floor position with covered patio and shared courtyard- Private level access with 2 entrances - Well-appointed kitchen includes gas stove w/ internal laundry- Recently polished timber flooring throughout- Well-proportioned, oversized bedrooms- 2nd bedroom with large mirrored wardrobe- Updated bathroom with full bathtub- Boutique Art Deco block of 8 with intercom security entrance- Communal gardens at the rear for quiet enjoyment
