A secluded surprise with single level appeal, this immaculate two-bedroom, two-bathroom residence is set upon a remarkable 332m² approx. with outdoor space to envy. Positioned to the rear of a small group of only six; embrace the tranquillity of this garden gem with its freestanding appeal, immediate comfort and exciting potential to value add and make your own. Warm and welcoming, inside reveals polished timber floors and large windows with leafy outlooks, along with the comfort of ducted heating and evaporative cooling. Generous living and dining overlooks the garden, accompanied by a neat kitchen with timber benchtops, a dishwasher and breakfast bar for casual meals. Privately nestled away from the living zone, two bedrooms and two bathrooms await, including a master bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in robe, while the family-sized bathroom indulges with a separate shower and bath. Complete with a single lock-up garage providing secure parking, it's the sprawling outdoor space that truly steals the show. With a lemon tree and vegetable garden, it's a green thumb's paradise, offering untapped potential to create your own leafy wonderland. Conveniently located just steps from the local park, milk bar and within walking distance of Kananook Station, reserves, schools, and beautiful beaches. Championship golf courses, shopping and freeway access are also within easy reach.
