Open-plan living zone with an updated kitchen and bathroom and secured windows, make this apartment feel cosy and safe. Natural light floods through expansive north-east windows, which overlook a stunning leafy canopy of established native trees, inviting you to curl up on the sofa and relax. The well appointed kitchen has plenty of storage, while the generous master bedroom boasts a floor to ceiling built-in robe and split-system air-conditioning to keep you comfortable year-round. The second bedroom easily fits a double bed or would make a great study/office. There is also a linen closet and shared storage downstairs for washing facilities, although this apartment has a washing machine. Undercover parking is allocated with several bays also available for visitors.
