An uber-spacious sanctuary in a vibrant lifestyle location, this two-bedroom apartment luxuriates in house-like proportions amid a sun-filled, top-floor position. Within a leisurely stroll of the lively hub of cafes, restaurants, and retailers at Kew Junction and Glenferrie Road, the home promotes a vivacious lifestyle, with immediate access to trams, buses, and Glenferrie station, leading schools, and the unending recreation at the Yarra River. Brushed in a cool, white colour palette, the immense living domain is a bright and airy setting to relax and dine with family and friends, extending onto a full width balcony for alfresco enjoyment. The kitchen hosts casual meals amid treetop views, providing gas cooking and ample storage in chic retro style. Offering abundant space for private sanctuary, each bedroom is fitted with built-in robes and a handy make-up vanity, sharing a bright bathroom with both a shower and a bath, plus a separate laundry room. Complete with a carport, the home provides immediate comfort with split system air-conditioning, while tempting some limited aesthetic upgrades in the future.
