A light-filled retreat of style, space and quality, this ultra-modern courtyard apartment offers contemporary living spaces, a spacious wraparound garden and a great in/outdoor layout for ease of entertaining. The home showcases a superb single-level design that delivers easy low-maintenance living with a stunning modern finish and a private position within the architectural The Carlton Vaucluse development, directly across the road from Diamond Bay Reserve. All the right ingredients for downsizers, professionals or bolthole success are here and ready to enjoy with a premium coastal address and an easy-to-maintain lock-up-and-leave property. This small boutique complex of only fifteen residences is tucked away within moments to coastal headland walks, Rose Bay and Vaucluse villages and Bondi's beachside cafe scene. A flowing single-level floorplan with excellent cross flow of air. Light-filled open design that interacts easily with the outdoor area. Leafy pet-friendly grassed garden and a covered entertainment patio. Two double bedrooms both have built-ins and courtyard access. Quality island kitchen featuring stone benches and gas cooktop. Level lift access to a security car space and intercom entrance. European Oak floors, ducted air-conditioning and travertine bathrooms.
