This beautiful home is the epitome of a desirable lifestyle with views to die for across the river and only a short walk to relax in the park and take in the surrounding areas and atmosphere. This amazing home features an expansive open plan living, dining and gourmet kitchen complete with high quality stainless double oven and hob on the ground floor together with Bedroom 1 and Bathroom 1 & Laundry. The living area opens onto a wrap-around decked patio area, perfect for most entertaining requirements. Moving upstairs, you will find Bedroom 2 and Mezzanine Bedroom 3 or upstairs lounge area adjoining the second bathroom complete with a huge corner spa bath and shower. The mezzanine area opens onto a large balcony overlooking the river and parklands, what more can you wish for every morning when you open your eyes! To the front of the property you will also find an enclosed courtyard with a wrap around decked patio and seating area alongside a single carport with open space for a second car to park behind. Reverse cycle air-con is installed in the living areas with a brand new split system being installed to the master mezzanine bedroom. There is also a security alarm system at the property for peace of mind. Enjoy weekend breakfasts at Peninsula Tea Gardens which is on your doorstep, or walk to the Maylands Public Golf Course. Fantastic location on the river, close to both the city and only 15 minutes to the airport! The property is currently tenanted for $575 per week on a periodic lease agreement so can continue as an investment or can be vacant at settlement.
