Extensively modernised with uncompromising quality and attention to detail, this light filled offering promotes carefree comfort in Melbourne's most celebrated lifestyle precinct. Pale tones and black accents contrasting for contemporary chic, an intelligent plan centres around an airy main section, with living and dining zones affording relaxing room to unwind and entertain. Comfortably catering for social occasions, a first rate kitchen boasts upmarket Bosch appliances and ample soft close cabinetry, while a powered American oak workbench provides a perfect base for the home professional. A covered balcony offers space to soak in relaxing rays, while full height and width robes, a ceiling fan, and in vogue bathroom serve a substantial bedroom. With high grade stone benchtops to kitchen and bathroom, further features include mobile integrated blinds, extensive attic storage, heating/cooling, engineered oak floors, an intercom, separate laundry, and private lock up garage. Footsteps from the outstanding coffee, popular restaurants, and flourishing nightspots of Chapel Street and Hawksburn Village, along with Prahran Market, scattered parks, leisure options, and city trains/trams.
