Quietly tucked away at the back of a group of units is this neat, low maintenance 2 bedroom property, representing a fantastic opportunity for any one looking for easy care living, or investment. Located within walking distance to Ulverstone's main street, this home boasts a spacious living area, neatly updated kitchen and bathroom, and two bedrooms both with quality built-ins. Another great feature here is the addition of an extra room that could be a small home office. There is good storage space, a spot for the car, and a separate laundry.
