To request an inspection, all you need to do is fill out our online enquiry form and register your details. This will allow us to provide you with the best possible service and keep you up-to-date with any important information. When you register your details, you will have the option to choose a time that suits you for the inspection. To ensure that the inspection runs smoothly and to avoid any disappointment, we kindly ask that you register to inspect the property. By doing so, you will be instantly informed of any updates, changes, or cancellations of your appointment. This means that you will not waste your time or travel to the property unnecessarily. We also ask that you bring photo ID with you to the inspection. In the unlikely event that there are no registrations, we may need to cancel the inspection. We appreciate your understanding in this matter.
