A coastal lifestyle like no other, this stand-out two bedroom apartment sits high above Chelsea's pristine coastline and cafe precinct. Enjoying the privacy and privilege of a position only paces from Chelsea Beach, a back-drop of bay views and crisp coastal air permeates daily routines. Bookended by balconies the home introduces its interiors with an entertaining focus, opening across a front-facing lounge before carrying entertaining to the rear atop hardwood timber floors. Framing captivating bay views with a glass sliding door, open living and dining dimensions marry with a practical kitchen design complete with modern appliances and ample cabinetry. Offering more than just a mesmerising coastal aspect, the home comes complete with two generous bedrooms each with built-in robes, central light-filled family bathroom with corner spa, heightened ceilings, electric wall heater, private ground-floor courtyard, shared access to common courtyard gardens and gazebo, and single car garage with rear laneway access. Remaining a quick dash to Chelsea Train Station and public transport, this highly-sought locale welcomes the convenience of Chelsea's retail mere moments from home.
