Welcome to an unparalleled opportunity in Carrick - where history meets potential at The Shed, a space with a story as captivating as its surroundings. With a legacy that spans generations, The Shed has seen many lives, from housing a Snowball Confectionary Factory to accommodating a bustling mechanics business. Each timber and beam whispers tales of the past, waiting to be woven into a new chapter. Nestled beside the original schoolhouse, The Shed stands as a testament to resilience and adaptability. Freshly roofed and boasting updated services, this period structure is poised for a revival. Its prime location, amidst the bustling through traffic and the vibrant local community, sets the stage for an exciting transformation. Imagine the possibilities within these walls - a bustling cafe, a dynamic community hub, or a flexible space (STCA) tailored to meet the needs of Carrick's ever-expanding population. With its spacious interior and historic charm, The Shed offers a blank canvas for your vision to take flight. Seize the opportunity to be part of Carrick's next chapter and transform The Shed into a destination that transcends time. Embrace the heritage, embrace the potential - make The Shed your canvas for creativity and community.
