Positioned in a quiet pocket yet surround by conveniences, this charming two-bedroom abode has a lot to offer. Refurbished throughout and exuding natural light, enjoy an expansive lounge domain that leads to a separate, updated kitchen with gas cook top and stainless steel appliances. Both bedrooms comprise built in robes and are serviced by a chic central bathroom and separate bathtub. All rooms are complimented further by panel heaters. Laundry facilities located in the building. Further enhancements include security intercom entry, off street parking and close proximity from Huntingdale Village, public transport, Monash University and easy access to the M1 Freeway.
