For young couples, down-sizers and astute investors, there's no greater comfort in knowing that you can move straight into a home without a worry in the world, and as the buyer of this single-level home, that's exactly what you can expect the moment you step foot through the door. A neutral colour palette packaged with warm timber floors throughout generates wide spread appeal and if you love to cook, a stone kitchen with an abundance of storage and bench space will certainly have you cooking in style. Clever zoning sees both the two bedrooms and bathroom positioned in privacy away from the active areas, while a secured outdoor area allows you to entertain any time of year. A remote single garage provides secure off-street parking, while split-system heating/cooling and a separate laundry adds to the appeal. Brilliantly located in close proximity to local eateries/shopping hubs, schools, parklands and public transport.
