This stunning one bedroom, one bathroom apartment tucked away in a small boutique complex offers the epitome of stylish, modern quality and easy-care living. Ideal for those seeking a low maintenance, lock-and-leave lifestyle, or astute investors looking for executive accommodation in a highly desirable location. The spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and living area features high ceilings and opens to the private balcony. The generous kitchen features quality appliances, gas cooking, double sink, acres of bench space and ample storage. Additional features include-

- Ducted reverse-cycle air-conditioning throughout
- Large open living space
- Access to the balcony from the bedroom
- Separate laundry providing storage galore
- Secure building with intercom and secure lift access
- Secure allocated car bay plus visitor parking

Well located right in the heart of this vibrant village, you'll have endless options for great food, coffee and shopping. This complex also offers for additional parking in the secure commercial car bays after hours, so you can enjoy hosting drinks and get togethers with family and friends. Immaculately presented with brand new linen curtains, and freshly painted throughout, this abode will impress! Contact Michelle Ralph today with any further queries or to arrange your viewing.
