City-view sanctuary with fabulous al fresco entertaining. Embrace the art of open air living with this thoughtfully designed town home, which offers a generous modern layout, lush leafy outlooks and four fabulous al fresco areas including an impressive city-view terrace. Perfectly balancing grand entertaining options and supreme privacy, this stunning abode is tucked away from the street into a tidy complex of 8, and lies just a short stroll from CBD transport and famed local dining venues. Framed by two very private patios, its ground floor living space captures sensational cross-flow breezes, and has been beautifully designed to harness abundant natural light with a soaring 4.8m void and stunning clerestory windows high above. Ensuring you stay connected whilst entertaining, a sleek kitchen lies handy and offers the budding chef quality gas appliances, stone benches, and heaps of storage space. Upstairs continues to impress with each bedroom thoughtfully paired by an al fresco balcony. Its lavish master offers a secluded retreat with large mirrored built-ins, air con, an ensuite, and lofty tree-lined views, whilst both additional bedrooms enjoy access to a sweeping private terrace with marvellous city outlooks. Promising the complete package with an ideal side-by-side double bay garage, easy-care tiles, and smart storage solutions throughout, this gorgeous home would benefit from some low-cost cosmetic upgrades, and will translate well with any personal style choice. Just a short stroll from Morningside train station, Blue Poppy Café, Flour & Chocolate Patisserie and Wynnum road dining options, this exciting address is minutes from Morningside Central shopping centre, and leafy Seven Hills Bushland Reserve. Surrounded by excellent schools including St Oliver Plunkett's & CHAC, it's closely neighboured by trendy Bulimba and Hawthorne dining precincts. Body Corp $ 4315 p.a approx Rates $481.10 p.q approx
