Set in what was once a vast c1900 Federation home, now divided into four unique, private apartments, this sunlit full brick residence is a rare gem in sought-after harbourside Neutral Bay. It's set in a tightly held pocket on a quiet cul-de-sac, a walk from Hayes Street Wharf, Cremorne Point, buses, parks, ferries and the cosmopolitan lifestyle hub of Neutral Bay Village. With quality finishes throughout, including travertine tiles and hardwood timber floors, this beautiful home will certainly impress the most discerning of buyers. -?Desirable top floor position, open plan living and dining -?Open-plan gourmet Corian kitchen with Miele appliances-?Fully-tiled ensuite to master bedroom, with built in robes-?Quality hardwood timber floorboards, fully ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning-?Internal laundry, covered carport, whisper quiet location
