Take the first step onto the property ladder in style with the sun-splashed seaside retreat, which boasts exciting affordability for singles, couples and starters in an enviable beachside location in strolling distance to the crystal waters of Long Island Beach. Cradled within a small complex in steps to cafes and Kananook train station on the close perimeter of Frankston city centre, just 1.5km away, the box-ticking locale will also delight investors seeking a set-and-forget opportunity in a high-rental-demand enclave. Secure beyond tall fencing, the single-level abode features a north-facing living room with generous natural light and split-system heating and airconditioning. Adorned in timeless timber cabinetry, the chic kitchen flaunts a freestanding stove with a gas cooktop and a woodgrain breakfast bar, while the private courtyard garden with covered barbecue deck provides the perfect setting for an after-work drink. Complete with a bathroom-come-laundry with woodgrain vanity and separate toilet, along with an allocated car space on the title, this seaside gem delivers a sweet hideaway from the rat-race yet moments to every essential.Please note: Photo ID is required for all inspections
