Art Deco charm and a whisper quiet setting enhance the appeal of this affordable 38 sqm (approx.) apartment in Bayswater Mews, a hidden collection of boutique buildings set in spacious grounds with lush tropical gardens, palm trees and dual street access. A tranquil haven on the rear ground floor of the Ka-lu-a building near the gated entrance on Roslyn Street, the apartment retains original character with wide windows, polished timber floors and high patterned ceilings. An ideal first home or investment with scope to add your own style to its light-filled interiors including an entry hall, double bedroom, bathroom, living/dining area and open-plan kitchen. Enjoy peace and privacy in a wonderfully convenient location just footsteps to cafes and dining, 250m to Coles supermarket, Woolworths Metro, Kings Cross train station and 500m to Rushcutters Bay on the harbour foreshore. Features • Ground floor at rear of Art Deco building • Sunny NW aspect, windows on two sides • Living & dining area with wide window • Open-plan kitchen with electric stove • Double bedroom with built-in wardrobe • Bright & airy bathroom with bath/shower • Entry hall, high ornate ceilings, timber floors • Security building with common rooftop area • Quiet rear setting in Bayswater Mews complex • Convenient position footsteps to cafes/dining • 250m to Coles & Woolworths Metro supermarkets • 250m to Kings Cross train station, 220m to buses • 500m walk to harbourside Rushcutters Bay Park
