With true Art Deco character, this apartment provides a sophisticated balance of old-school charm and modern amenities in a prime location on Powlett Street. Offering a great deal more than a standard studio it features a functional layout with a separate entry and full-sized bathroom. The immaculate and elegant interior is perfectly complemented by the classic and faultless architecture, original paned windows, and full-length doors that open to the internal garden. But the allure doesn't stop there. Your new home at Regent's Gate comes with the coveted benefit of two parking permits, ensuring your convenience in this exclusive Melbourne enclave. Here, you're not just purchasing a property; you're securing your place in one of Melbourne's most esteemed neighbourhoods, celebrated for its heritage architecture and its proximity to the CBD, Fitzroy Gardens, and the iconic MCG. This inner city sanctuary presents an unparalleled opportunity to own an affordable Art Deco gem in one of Melbourne's premier tree-lined streets. Don't miss your chance to make this extraordinary piece of Melbourne history your own. Embrace the elegance of the past while enjoying the comforts of today in this truly remarkable property.
