Desirably positioned within walking distance to Mary Ellen Hotel, Junction Fair and close to Newcastle's iconic beaches, this easy-living apartment is the perfect option for first home buyers or investors. The low maintenance interior features two large bedrooms with built-ins, well presented bathroom and a comfortable lounge and dining area seamlessly flowing to a sun-drenched East facing private balcony. There is a modern kitchen with a pantry and plenty of cupboard space for storage. Additional features of the apartment include lock-up garaging with a separate personal laundry all neatly comprised within a well-maintained and established complex. A prime opportunity to secure a great asset in a desirable suburb, this opportunity won't last long.
