A remarkably tranquil haven of contemporary class and sophistication, this bold, single bedroom 'Evoque' residence is well removed from the street and brimming with natural light, in a coveted position on the cusp of Glenferrie Road's thriving cafe and dining scene. Fully secure and impeccably appointed, the apartment opens to a generous courtyard that is geared for entertaining and certain to impress everyone from new market entrants to downsizers seeking to retain a Hawthorn presence. A Miele-equipped kitchen with stone benches oversees open-plan living with a seamless transition to the courtyard, while an entire wall of mirrored built-in robes in the bedroom offers excellent storage. Accessed via secure video entry with basement parking, a fob-activated elevator, CCTV surveillance and a storage unit, the apartment also features laundry facilities in the kitchen, timber-look flooring, split system heating and air conditioning. Step out onto Glenferrie Road for a terrific selection of cafes, shops, restaurants and bars, as well as multiple tram routes both along Glenferrie Road and along Riversdale Road, whilst Glenferrie Railway Station is nearby for effortless city commuting.
