Dandenong's iconic marketplace is at your doorstep, with eateries, cafes, grocers and local traders coming together to create a vibrant local culture that can't be found anywhere else. From here, you can walk to Dandenong Market and Dandenong Square, while still enjoying the peace and privacy that a side-street address affords. Along with immediate access to local shopping precincts, this property enjoys close proximity to parks, schools, sports fields, and has easy access to both Dandenong Hospital and the train station. This area truly has it all. Inside, a low maintenance layout offers excellent space and light, with North-facing living zones. There is space for living, dining and entertaining, and the kitchen comes complete with generous preparation space, high-volume cabinetry and stainless-steel appliances. Features include laminate floorboards, a fully-tiled bathroom, built-in robes in both bedrooms, balcony, wall heater and living room split system. All the work has been done for you to move in and enjoy.
