From the distant glitter of the Manly foreshore to the graceful arc of our iconic bridge, Sydney's spellbinding harbourscape creates a majestic backdrop to this truly exceptional residence. Poised at the very tip of the Point Piper peninsula, it commands a premier position on the north western corner of an exclusive collection of eight apartments. The design mastery of respected architect Nick Tobias is on show throughout the home's custom-finished interiors, where subtle curved lines and a selection of natural elements work in perfect harmony with the breathtaking harbour surrounds. Free flowing living and dining spaces extend through a series of bi-folding doors to the wraparound terrace, affording the most idyllic setting to enjoy the intimate panoramic views across the sun dappled water. This is a luxury lifestyle offering of rare prestige, with the building's manicured surrounding lawns, exquisite harbourfront swimming pool and private wharf only enhancing the already unique 270 degree view.- 3 expansive bedrooms, 2 elegant bathrooms, 2 secure car spaces- Immersive harbour views welcome from the very first step inside- Parquet floors and Heat & Glo fireplace create a warm atmosphere- Wall-to-wall glass amplifies northern sunlight and panoramic views- Vast balcony provides the perfect vantage to soak up the surrounds- Sun washed common lawns, pool and wharf set by the water's edge- Gourmet kitchen draped in grey marble, coffee bar with bridge view- Two king sized bedrooms boast streamlined robes, bespoke joinery- Primary bedroom has indulgent full ensuite, Harbour Bridge outlook- Versatile third bedroom could be sitting room, library or home office
