

4/65 Lakeside Drive, Joondalup, WA 6027

Sold Unit

Monday, 30 October 2023

4/65 Lakeside Drive, Joondalup, WA 6027

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Type: Unit

Shane Patience

0419944609

Contact agent

Now SOLD by Patience brothers Shane and Vern are proud to present this meticulously cared-for 2 bedroom 1 bathroom apartment. Enjoy breathtaking vistas of Lake Joondalup and Yellagonga Park from your elevated first-floor balcony, all while being conveniently situated near central Joondalup. Nestled within an intimate, secure complex, this first-floor gem, akin to new, boasts all the modern conveniences. Access is via a secure underground car park and a private staircase. The kitchen is well appointed with abundant storage, dishwasher and a double fridge recess. Stone countertops and backsplash complement the electric oven with gas hob. This area flows seamlessly into the air-conditioned dining and lounge space, extending to a spacious front balcony. Revel in the panoramic vista of Yellagonga Park; it's an ideal spot for a leisurely afternoon beverage or hosting gatherings with friends. The bedrooms offer both ample space and seclusion, affording tranquil views of the surrounding greenery. They exude serenity, boasting ample storage, with one bedroom featuring air conditioning. The bathroom is a harmonious blend of style and functionality, featuring a stone basin, a shower, a separate toilet, and a discreet New York-style laundry area, complemented by a linen cupboard. This tranquil haven is strategically positioned, a mere 10-minute stroll to Lakeside Shopping Centre, the train station, an array of restaurants, bars, the library, and various other amenities. Tailored for young professionals, astute investors, first-time homebuyers, and FIFO workers, this residence promises hassle-free, turnkey living. In sum, this residence offers unrivalled, contemporary urban living at its finest. Book your look today with Shane Patience on 0419 944 609.