Don't miss the chance to own this inviting 2-bedroom townhouse nestled in a tranquil and highly sought-after location. Recently upgraded with fresh paint and new carpeting, this residence exudes a renewed sense of comfort. Step into the ground floor, where an open-plan living area with newly polished floorboards seamlessly integrates with a stylish and spacious kitchen. Completing this level are a well-placed laundry and a convenient powder room. Upstairs awaits with two generously sized bedrooms, a full bathroom, and a versatile study/second living area. The separate rear yard beckons with its spacious layout, deck, and easily maintained gardens, accompanied by a secure lock-up remote control garage. Prioritizing comfort, the property is equipped with gas ducted heating and reverse cycle air conditioning. Nestled in the heart of Frankston, this property is in close proximity to Frankston High School, Monash University, and Frankston CBD, catering to the needs of both first-time homebuyers and astute investors. This is a prime opportunity - act swiftly to secure your spot in this sought-after location!
