Balancing low maintenance comfort and city fringe convenience, this renovated ground floor standout offers an enviable lifestyle or investment opportunity in Richmond's charismatic heart. Privately placed inside a secure, boutique block of only ten, a quiet and tastefully modernised interior enjoys impressive space and sunlight, with a considerable bedroom accompanied by ample robe storage and a refreshed bathroom with rain shower. Providing plentiful space to work, relax, and entertain, a substantial living/dining area adjoins a storage rich kitchen with washing machine facilities, while further features include polished concrete floors, split system heating/cooling, intercom, NBN availability, a communal laundry, and off street parking behind an electric gate. An outstanding prospect to occupy and enjoy or capitalise on thriving rental yields, it's steps from what makes Richmond so special, with revered schools, Victoria Gardens Shopping Centre, Citizens Park, city and Chapel Street trams, the Yarra River, and Bridge Road, Church Street, and Victoria Street precincts just metres away.
