This tranquil, largely renovated, two bedroom villa has been up-dated with an unwavering commitment to excellence and sits ready and waiting for you to move in and enjoy the fruits of this peaceful, yet highly central, tree-surrounded setting. With a rare eye for detail, most of the home has been transformed into a captivating designer domain, leaving only some kitchen cosmetics and the main bathroom for you to complete, if you choose and entirely at your leisure. One of only four, in a tree-lined setting opposite parkland, the home is remarkably peaceful and just moments from the brand new Coles, strip shopping, cafes and plenty of transport, as it reveals a showpiece master bedroom with triple floor-to-ceiling built-in robes and a fully-equipped ensuite in which a floating wall-mounted vanity and a frameless-screened shower are perfectly 'on trend'. The second bedroom, too, features large robes and the courtyard is a sublime sanctuary where a deck and magnolia-surrounded garden are all first class. Add to this, a lock-up garage, central heating, cooling, fresh carpets and plantation shutters to underline the uncompromising attention to detail. Wander to plenty of shops and cafes at the bottom of the street, as well as trams along Riversdale Rd, plus you have Union Rd's renowned café scene and the renowned 'The Hills' wine bar just around the corner, as well as city-bound trains from Chatham Railway Station or Surrey Hills Railway Station.
