As one of only four in a boutique Art Deco block, this fantastic studio apartment is situated in the heart of Windsor, perfectly located to enjoy the areas famously loved cafes and restaurants, as well as Prahran Market, Chapel Street and Windsor train station in incredibly close walking distance. Totally unique and a stand out from the rest as one of the most affordable properties to be sold in Windsor in the last 12 months! Peacefully positioned on the first floor it's very private, and in comfortable condition having been recently re-painted, but with plenty of scope for an upgrade to suit personal tastes. Accommodation provides a good-sized living/bedroom with decorative open fireplace and solid timber floors, whilst drawing in lovely natural daylight, connecting seamlessly to the tidy kitchen and neat bathroom. The unit also provides direct rear access to the huge communal courtyard for great outdoor entertaining, and also benefits from a shared storage room. With incredibly low outgoing costs it's broadly attractive to all, as a safe and very low maintenance unit for the owner occupier, or for the avid investor it poses great potential as a long-term rental or Airbnb.
