Positioned in a private boutique complex of only 4, lies this unique luxury townhouse. Superbly laid out with sleek and stylish interiors you simply won't find anything like it on the Southern Gold Coast. With its attention to detail, quality finishes and tranquil South East Asian design this large and enviable home stands out from the rest. From the moment you arrive you'll be captivated by the tranquil subtropical setting, and the impressive architectural fusion of Indonesian and contemporary European craftsmanship, as your senses are transported by the smell of the natural timber and fresh sea air. Inside the generous open plan layout is complimented by extensive glass paneling ensuring an abundance of natural light, whilst striking New Guinea Rosewood floors and high ceilings flow effortlessly throughout. Two stunning ensuites plus a bathroom with beautiful Australian Blue Gum benches and bonus powder room accompany the 3 well-appointed bedrooms. Whilst the gourmet kitchen with neutral black granite benches will be perfect for the most fastidious cook; as for entertaining the shaded wrap-around alfresco area offers a truly seamless transition of indoor and outdoor living.
