Positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac, this home offers great entertaining options with spacious living/dining connecting to an expansive alfresco zone. A great family home with easy access to local school, shops, parklands and bike trails making this a perfect choice within the beachside pocket of Seaford. On entry you are welcomed by soaring cathedral ceilings in the lounge with all year round creature comforts including ducted heating, split system A/C, evaporative cooling and open fireplace. The open plan kitchen and dining will easily accommodate the largest of family gatherings featuring breakfast bar bench space, a walk-in pantry and garden outlook. The master bedroom is zoned to the rear of the home with walk-thru robe and updated ensuite. Centrally located are the children's bedrooms with BIR's, updated family bathroom with separate shower/bath and laundry with direct outdoor access. Established landscaping and private backyard that includes garden shedding allows plenty of room for the kids and pets to play, while the double carport and additional parking bay ensures the cars, caravan, boat or trailer are also well looked after.
